“I feel much better during a day after a workout than I do on the days when I don’t workout. It’s like taking a dose of medicine... Being active in the fitness center has improved my outlook on life, period.”

—Fred Emmings

Episcopal Homes Community Member and Parkinsons boxing group participant

“Without connections that happen through wellbeing programming, elders would feel isolated and disconnected. They would not be living a full life, and the people at Episcopal Homes live life fully until they are no longer living.”

—Rev. Joanie Delamater

Creative Ventures Teaching Artist and Spiritual Life Volunteer, shown with Nancy Begin, Episcopal Homes Community Member and art class participant

"When I talk about Beloved Community, I use Episcopal Homes as an example. I support the Living Fully endowment campaign because it strengthens Episcopal Homes' capacity to serve at the epicenter of elderhood and aging support within ECMN."

—Bishop Brian Prior

Episcopal Church in Minnesota (ECMN) and Honorary Trustee of Episcopal Homes of Minnesota

Episcopal Homes' wellbeing programming is funded through your generous contributions to the Episcopal Homes Foundation.

Theater Premier—This is Your Life, Episcopal Homes: Starring Sister Annette

Based on the popular 1950s TV series, This is Your Life, our premier aligns with the original series in choosing someone who has deeply contributed in some way to their community. The evening's focus is Sister Annette Relf, who founded a "home for the aged" in 1894 when many elders had nowhere to turn.

In this one-act play, enjoy Episcopal Homes' history, including meeting prominent leaders—both past and present. Sister Annette's vision for a Home of comfort where elders could live fully shines through in this performance by a cast of current residents. Laughter is guaranteed!

Generous support from you has been integral to our longevity and capacity to serve elders of diverse incomes, cultures and views who live and thrive as a loving community with one another at Episcopal Homes.

*Living Fully
because of you.*
